

Patrick Kabuya
Senior Financial Management Specialist
World Bank Group

Patrick's main role at the World Bank Group involves partnering with different stakeholders especially governments, regulators and Accounting professional bodies in Africa, to strengthen public finance management (PFM) systems and accountancy profession.

He has extensive wealth of knowledge and experience on International Public Sector Accounting Standards (IPSASs) gained mainly by participating in public sector standard setting in South Africa Accounting Standards Board and the International Public Sector Accounting Standards Board (IPSASB). Patrick has been providing technical assistance (guidance and trainings) on IPSAS implementation to a number of countries.

Patrick holds a Masters of Commerce (International Accounting) degree from University of Johannesburg, and Bcom Accounting (honours) from University of Nairobi. He is a Certified Public Accountant of Kenya (CPA(K)), Fellow of Association of Certified Chartered Accountants (ACCA) and African Leadership Initiative Fellow (a member of Aspen Global Leadership Network). Before joining the World Bank Group in 2009, he served in Ernst & Young and South African Institute of Chartered Accountants.